Peconic Landing to host 5th Annual End of Summer Celebration

Peconic Landing is excited to announce it will be hosting its annual End of Summer Celebration and fireworks show for the fifth consecutive year.

The much-anticipated event is free to all and attracts more than 700 guests each year.

Join us Sunday, September 4 at 7 p.m. for a live performance by the forty-member Atlantic Wind Symphony, which is comprised of musicians from across Long Island. The performance will take place on the patio at Brecknock Hall and feature popular songs by George Gershwin, John Philip Sousa as well as well-known Broadway hits. It will also include a salute to Veterans and current service members. This year we will also recognize police and volunteer fire officials.

The performance is sponsored by the Brecknock Hall Foundation, which has a mission of maintaining the beautification and preservation of the historic mansion.

Fireworks will take off about 8:15, launched over Peconic Landing's community pond. Guests are asked to bring a blanket and chairs to make the most of the event. The 20-minute fireworks show is sponsored by Peconic Landing.

"This event is our way of saying thank you to the North Fork community for its support throughout the year," said Robert J. Syron, President and CEO of Peconic Landing. "Bring your families, bring your loved ones and join us for what is always an incredible fireworks show."

A rain date is scheduled for September 6 at 7 p.m. Peconic Landing is located at 1500 Brecknock Road in Greenport. For more information, visit www.peconiclanding.com.
